2. Revised: RFCSP Section 010 – ATTACHMENTS, RFCSP ATTACHMENT A, PART THREE, item 1, Delivery of Exercise Equipment, is revised to read as the following:

“Provide the number of days, after receipt of a Purchase Order, in which delivery and installation shall occur at the Senior Facilities identified in RFCSP ATTACHMENT B, PRICE SCHEDULE. The number of days, combined shall not exceed a total of 30 days.”

3. Add: SECTION 004 - SPECIFICATIONS / SCOPE OF SERVICES, Subsection 4.1.1, EQUIPMENT DEMONSTRATIONS, add the following:

“The City may request equipment demonstrations to be conducted at Respondents storefront location or an existing senior facility or public fitness center. As an option, the City is open to Respondent providing a demonstration of equipment on a DVD. The City is restricted to a 100 mile radius for travel to view demonstrations.”

QUESTIONS SUBMITTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 003, Pre-Submittal Conference:

QUESTION 1: If we represent both manufactures can we submit proposals for both lines?

RESPONSE: YES

QUESTION 2: Can two proposals be submitted under the same legal name?

RESPONSE: Yes, multiple proposals may be submitted under the same legal name. However, the last submittal will be considered the overriding document for evaluation purposes. If different manufacturers are being proposed, multiple Price Schedules may be attached to your submission, noting each Price Schedule as Option I, Option II, etc.

QUESTION 3: In regards to the medical spec treadmill vs. the standard treadmill, does the City really need the decline and reverse motion?

RESPONSE: No, but would like to see the cost for this feature as a separate line item. See revised Price Schedule. The city does not guarantee the purchase of this feature.

QUESTION 4: Where did the specs for the rower option come from?

RESPONSE: Concept2

QUESTION 5: Does the City require a wheelchair ramp w/ bracket for any of the equipment?

RESPONSE: No, but would like to see the cost for this feature as a separate line item. See revised Price Schedule. The city does not guarantee the purchase of this accessory.

QUESTION 6: Is a 5 year equipment warranty mandatory?

RESPONSE: A warranty is mandatory. However, Respondents are to provide the warranty applicable to the equipment or manufacturer being proposed. The warranty in the RFCSP for Electronics & Parts 5 years and Labor 2 years is herein replaced and left blank for Respondent to provide the warranty period applicable to the equipment proposed. See revised Price Schedule.

QUESTION 7: Does the Rower require brail?

RESPONSE: No, but would like to see the cost for this feature as a separate line item. See revised Price Schedule. The city does not guarantee the purchase of this feature.
