Introduction

The City of San Antonio operates the Official Visitor Information Center “Visitor Center” for San Antonio. The Visitor Center provides multiple services for visitors and locals including retail services and is located at 317 Alamo Plaza. The Visitor Center has frequent inquiries from visitors as to where in the downtown area they could purchase tickets to various amusement parks, major attractions, waterparks, zoos, aquariums, museums, show caves/caverns, wildlife parks, and tour operators.

These tickets are offered to our visitors as a convenience and public service in the anticipation of exceeding their customer service expectations.

The City of San Antonio’s Convention & Visitors Bureau is responsible for managing the Visitor Center, which includes the purchase and resale of merchandise, including tickets. Approvals regarding the consignment of tickets for the Official Visitor Information Center will be made by the Executive Director of the Convention & Visitors Bureau, or designee (hereinafter referred to as “City Store Representative”). The City Store Representative or designee also has the authority to enter into and modify the Visitor Center Ticket Consignment Agreement, upon consultation with the City Attorney, including, but not limited to, determining ticket prices and adding future Visitor Center locations for selling tickets, without future City Council approval.

In no event shall the City's compliance with the requirements of the Texas Public Information Act as it is written and as it may be amended from time to time, or with a Court order, be an event of default under any provision of this Agreement.

Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement, each party agrees to discontinue immediately the use in any manner whatsoever of any of the other party's marks, logos, copyrights and other registrations and to surrender any material containing the other party's marks, logos, copyrights and registrations. It is expressly agreed between the parties that each party retains full ownership of said party's logos, marks, copyrights and other registrations.

8. INDEMNITY.

Seller shall INDEMNIFY, DEFEND and HOLD HARMLESS Consignee, the elected officials, employees, officers, directors, agents, contractors, subcontractors, consultants, subconsultants, representatives, invitees, and volunteers of Consignee, and those visitors to the Visitor Information Center, and any future locations, who purchase tickets from Consignee at the Visitor Information Center, and any future locations, and customers and clients of each of them, from any demands, claims, expenses, damages, causes or action, judgments, losses, fines, penalties, and liabilities whatsoever, including without limitation any court costs and attorneys fees, arising out of or in any way related to any act or omission of Seller, its employees, agents or subcontractors, including without limitation any matter involving bodily injury, personal Injury, property damage, death, or any other injury or damage, or noncompliance with any law or any provision of this Agreement. All without, however, waiving any governmental immunity available to the Consignee under Texas Law and without waiving any defenses of the parties under Texas Law. The provisions of this INDEMNITY are solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and not intended to create or grant any rights, contractual or otherwise, to any other person or entity. Seller shall promptly advise Consignee in writing of any claim or demand against Consignee or Seller known to Seller, related to or arising out of Seller's activities under this Agreement and shall see to the investigation and defense of such claim or demand at Seller's cost. Consignee shall have the right, at its options and at its own expense, to participate in such defense without relieving Seller of any of its obligations under this paragraph. Notwithstanding any condition imposed by a policy of insurance to which Seller and Consignee are named, Consignee shall retain the right, at its option and at its own expense, to participate in any such defense provided by Seller under this paragraph.

It is the EXPRESS INTENT of the parties to this Agreement, that the INDEMNITY provided for in this section, is an INDEMNITY extended by Seller to INDEMNIFY, PROTECT and HOLD HARMLESS, Consignee from the consequences of the Consignee's OWN NEGLIGENCE, provided, however, that the INDEMNITY provided for in this paragraph SHALL APPLY only when the NEGLIGENT ACT of the Consignee is a CONTRIBUTORY CAUSE of the resultant injury, death or damage, and shall have no application when the negligent act of Consignee is the sole cause of the resultant injury, death, or damage.

Defense Counsel – Consignee shall have the right to select or to approve defense counsel to be retained by Seller in fulfilling its obligation hereunder to defend and indemnify Consignee, unless such right is expressly waived by Consignee in writing. Seller shall retain Consignee-approved defense counsel within seven (7) business days of Consignee's written notice that Consignee is invoking its right to indemnification under this Agreement. If Seller fails to retain counsel within such time period, Consignee shall have the right to retain defense counsel on its own behalf, and Seller shall be liable for all costs incurred by Consignee. Consignee shall also have the right, at its option, to be represented by advisory counsel of its own selection and at its own expense, without waiving the foregoing.

Employee Litigation – In any and all claims against any party indemnified hereunder by any employee of Seller, any agent or subcontractor of Seller, anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable, the indemnification obligation herein provided shall not be limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits payable by or for Seller or any agent or subcontractor under worker's compensation or other employee benefit acts.

9. Relationship of the Parties as an Independent Contractor. It is agreed that each party in performing its obligations under this Agreement, acts as an independent contractor. This Agreement is not intended to create an employment or agency relationship or a joint venture, or any other relationship, except Seller and Consignee.

10. Mediation. In the event a dispute arises in connection with this Agreement which the parties cannot resolve between themselves, the parties shall have the option to submit the dispute to nonbinding mediation. The mediator(s) shall be impartial, shall be selected by the parties, and the cost of the mediation shall be borne equally by the parties. The mediation process shall be confidential to the extent permitted by law.

11. Non-Exclusivity Clause. During the term of this Agreement, Seller shall not agree to exclusive contracts with other ticket vendors, which would limit Consignee's ability to sell Seller's tickets. By agreeing to consign tickets to Consignee, Seller shall not be limited to sell tickets through other ticket vendors. Consignee reserves the right to sell tickets of other "Sellers" during the term of this Agreement.

12. Conflict of Interest/Discretionary Contracts Disclosure. Seller acknowledges that it is informed that the Charter of the City of San Antonio ("Consignee herein") and its Ethics Code prohibit a City of San Antonio officer or employee, as those terms are defined in said Ethics Code, from having a financial interest in any contract with the City of San Antonio or any City of San Antonio agency such as City-owned utilities. An officer or employee has a "prohibited financial interest" in a contract with the City of San Antonio or in the sale to the City of San Antonio of land, materials, supplies or service, if any of the following individual(s) or entities is a party to the contract or sale: a City of San Antonio officer or employee; his parent, child or spouse; a business entity in which the officer or employee, or his parent, child or spouse owns ten (10%) percent or more of the voting stock or shares of the business entity, or ten (10%) percent or more of the fair market value of the business entity; a business entity in which any individual or entity above listed is a subcontractor on a City of San Antonio contract, a partner or a parent or subsidiary business entity. Seller warrants and certifies, and this Agreement is made in reliance thereon, that it, its officers, employees and agents are neither officers nor employees of the City of San Antonio. Seller further warrants and certifies that it has tendered to the City a Discretionary Contracts Disclosure Statement in compliance with the City's Ethics Code.

13. Entire Agreement. It is the intent of the parties that this Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and supercedes any and all prior offers, negotiations and agreements.

14. Miscellaneous Provisions:
