Grantor, for the Consideration, Grants, Bargains, and Conveys to Grantee, all of Grantor's right, title, interest, and estate, both at law and in equity, as of the date hereof, in and to the Property, together with all and singular the rights and appurtenances thereto in anywise belonging, To Have and To Hold unto Grantee, Grantee's successors and assigns forever, Without Any Express Or Implied Warranty Whatsoever, Including But Not Limited to Warranties of Title, Condition, or Character.

The Property is conveyed together with any and all improvements, structures and fixtures located thereon, and with all rights, privileges, rights of way, and easements appurtenant thereto, unless reserved unto other parties herein.

Reservations, Restrictions, Exceptions, And Conditions To Conveyance: This conveyance is explicitly subject to the following:

A. Reservations:

1. Grantee shall develop and utilize the property for low income or moderate income housing.

If Grantee fails to develop and utilize the property for low or moderate income housing, Grantor may at any time re-enter the Property and retake title to it by filing in the Bexar County real property records a Notice of Re-Entry. Grantor may also file the Notice of Re-Entry if Grantee fails to diligently pursue getting permits that are applied for. Upon Grantor's filing the Notice of Re-Entry, title automatically passes back from Grantee to Grantor. After filing the notice, Grantor may, but need not, move into possession of the Property and evict Grantee. Grantor's failure to move into possession or evict Grantee does not impair the effectiveness of filing the notice.

If Grantor has not filed a Notice of Re-Entry by 50 years after Closing, its right to do so lapses, and Grantee's title is thereafter secure against any attempted re-entry by Grantor. No delay by Grantor in filing the notice short of the fifty years impairs its right to file the notice.

2. Not later than 3 years after Closing, Grantee must apply for all permits required for building out the Property and (a) Grantee must, other than for ordinary punch-list items, complete construction and (b) at least 50% of the primary building on the Property must be occupied.

If Grantee fails to timely procure the permits, fails to timely substantially complete construction, or fails to timely have the building occupied by the requisite percentage, Grantor may at any time re-enter the Property and retake title to it by filing in the Bexar County real property records a Notice of Re-Entry. Grantor may also file the Notice of Re-Entry if Grantee fails to diligently pursue getting permits that are applied for. Upon Grantor's filing the Notice of Re-Entry, title automatically passes back from Grantee to Grantor. After filing the notice, Grantor may, but need not, move into possession of the Property and evict Grantee. Grantor's failure to move into possession or evict Grantee does not impair the effectiveness of filing the notice.

As a condition of its right to file a Notice of Re-Entry, Grantor must tender to Grantor the Purchase Price under this contract within 30 days after filing the notice. A permissible way to tender the Purchase Price is to file a declaratory judgment suit to affirm Grantor's title and to deposit the Purchase Price into the registry of the court.

If Grantor has not filed a Notice of Re-Entry by five years after Closing, its right to do so lapses, and Grantee's title is thereafter secure against any attempted re-entry by Grantor. No delay by Grantor in filing the notice short of the four years impairs its right to file the notice.

- B. Easements: All recorded and unrecorded easements, whether or not open and obvious.
- C. Restrictions: All covenants and restrictions affecting the Property.
- D. Exceptions: All instruments affecting the Property, whether or not recorded.
- E. Conditions: All conditions affecting the Property.

This conveyance does not relieve Grantee of any building, zoning, or other city-imposed requirements, or other land use restrictions applicable to the Property or the obligation to pay any real estate taxes that may otherwise be due.

Grantor expressly disclaims any and all warranties arising by common law, statute (including without limitation the implied warranties of § 5.023, Texas Property Code or any successor statute), or otherwise.

Setting Out The Specific Reservations And Disclaimers Does Not Imply That The Property Is Free Of Other Encumbrances Or Adverse Claims Or Conditions. Grantor Specifically Disclaims Any Such Implication.
