

TAB 6 – CONTRACTS DISCLOSURE FORM

See attached completed Contracts Disclosure Form and Conflict of Interest Questionnaire.

Conflicts of Interest

As a large, full-service firm, we represent clients in front of various City of San Antonio agencies and departments in matters in which the City would be considered an adverse party. We do not believe these matters would affect our ability to effectively provide federal representation services to the City and, if engaged, would disclose all such matters to obtain appropriate waivers.

Clark Hill Strasburger employs a dedicated staff in our Conflicts Department to ensure our advocacy of clients is free from conflicts of interest. Our standard operating procedure requires all firm attorneys to clear conflicts of interest on all parties involved in a matter before proceeding. When potential conflicts are identified, the attorneys involved in matters on both sides are contacted so that they can determine if a true conflict of interest exists and, if so, whether consents may be requested and obtained as necessary to resolve the conflict.
