ACTION ITEMS FOR STAFF BRIEFING

City Clerk Vacek read the caption for Item 5:

- 5. Briefing on the status of the Climate Action and Adaptation Plan [Roderick J. Sanchez, Assistant City Manager; Douglas Melnick, Chief Sustainability Officer, Office of Sustainability]

Doug Melnick provided a presentation on the San Antonio Climate Action and Adaptation Plan. He provided background information and expressed that the SA Tomorrow Sustainability Plan was adopted August 11, 2016. Mr. Melnick explained that SA Tomorrow established a roadmap for enhancing the quality of life while balancing the impact of expected growth of 1.1 million people by 2040. He described the Paris Climate Agreement that City Council supports with the goals of reducing greenhouse gas emissions and prepare for climate change.

Mr. Melnick defined what SA Climate Ready meant and described strategies for ensuring economic prosperity and prioritized clean air, public health, water quality, conservation, transportation choices, clean secure energy, and emergency preparedness. He stated that SA Climate ready was grounded in climate science and best practices. He provided the Greenhouse Gas Inventory and Greenhouse Gas Mitigation & Adaptation Framework.

Greenhouse Gas Reduction Strategies	Adaptation Strategies
Increase carbon-free energy	Increase infrastructure resilience
Reduce building energy consumption	Strengthen Public Health Systems
Reduce transportation energy consumption	Enhance emergency management & community preparedness
Advance the circular economy	Promote, restore, and protect green infrastructure & ecosystems
Promote biodiversity and health ecosystems	Protect local food security
Educate and empowerment	Increase resiliency awareness & outreach
28 Community Strategies	45 Community Strategies
13 Municipal Strategies	45 Municipal Strategies

Mr. Melnick outlined the SA Climate Ready draft plan and identified objectives of City Council’s Resolution in support of the Paris Climate Agreement. He described the process for reporting, updates, implementation and timeline.

Mayor Nirenberg applauded the efforts of the Office of Sustainability staff, outreach, and coordination that occurred in creating a draft plan.

Mayor Nirenberg called upon the citizens registered to speak:

Bill Hurley spoke in support of the Draft Climate Action and Adaptation Plan. He stated that he wrote numerous articles for 10 years published in the Express News regarding climate change.

Russell Seal spoke in support of the Draft Climate and Adaptation Plan. He stated that coal plants needed emission controls to mitigate damage to air quality. He proposed draft language to reduce the carbon intensity and work with CPS Energy for implementation of the Flex Path towards carbon neutrality by 2050.

Jack M. Finger spoke in opposition of the Draft Plan. He noted that global warming was real and 100-degree temperatures, torrential rain, and flooding was proof of climate change.

Mayor Nirenberg announced that the Draft Climate Action and Adaptation Plan are online at www.saclimateready website.

Councilmember Sandoval thanked Mr. Melnick and the Office of Sustainability staff for providing the Draft Climate Action and Adaptation Plan. She noted the consistent hot weather which puts a strain on the utility grid. She described parts of the Draft Plan which are preparation for extreme weather events such as strong winds and unexpected storms that cause significant damage. Councilmember Sandoval explained her background and experience in air pollution and climate modeling. She asked Mr. Melnick to explain what carbon neutral meant.

Mr. Melnick defined carbon neutral means that we will be emitting no net carbon to the atmosphere. He stated that it did not mean we will be emitting zero.

Councilmember Rocha Garcia thanked Mr. Melnick and his team for the Draft Plan. She noted the importance to revisit the roadmap to measure progress and evaluate unintended consequences. She noted reassessments and updates every three to five years from the adoption date; as too long. She stated that additional San Antonio Stakeholders should be highlighted in the Draft Plan. She described a tour she took of the Coca-Cola Bottling Company which reduced environmental emissions. Councilmember Garcia requested a variety of statistical data from Mr. Melnick and the cities that were used to compare San Antonio.

Councilmember Gonzales thanked Mr. Melnick and his team for the Draft Plan. She requested the same statistical data that Councilmember Rocha Garcia requested. She expressed that District 5 was prone to flooding and that infrastructure projects were delayed or never completed. Councilmember Gonzales stated that District 5 needed additional funding to complete storm water projects. She requested an equity assessment and compared District 5 to other Districts in San Antonio.

Councilmember Andrews-Sullivan noted support in planting trees and plants to absorb carbon. She referenced a soccer field within the Wheatly Heights Complex that is not used, be turned into a community garden of fruits and vegetables. Councilmember Andrews-Sullivan asked many questions on the Coal Plants and the costs associated with keeping them open and/or closing. She expressed concern for those with COPD or Asthma needing air filtration systems and their cost. She also described partnerships with Lowe's and Home Depot to provide energy-efficient AC Units to those in need.

Councilmember Courage thanked Mr. Melnick and the Office of Sustainability for the Draft Plan. He expressed concern with climate change occurring around the world. He noted that with the potential adoption of the Climate Action and Adaptation Plan; San Antonio joins hundreds of cities across the country doing their part. He noted 28 community wide strategies with 86 potential measures to consider and 13 municipal strategies and 26 measures towards implementation. Councilmember Courage asked for the details of how to implement all the strategies and the priorities outlined. He also requested a timeline and costs for implementation. Lastly, he requested the mechanisms be used to monitor the successful implementation.

Councilmember Treviño thanked Mr. Melnick and his team for preparing the Draft Plan. He recognized the partnership with UTSA and acknowledged their incredible research institution. He thanked Dr. Hazem Rashed-Ali, UTSA Associate Professor Architecture for research he conducted for the Under One Roof Program. He stated that the Under One Roof Program recently won state an award for effectiveness. He noted that one of the key categories (building energy) by reducing the temperature of a home. Councilmember Treviño explained the benefits of building smarter and maintaining aging infrastructure. He also expressed his support for partnerships with Lowe's and Home Depot.

Councilmember Cabello Havrda thanked Mr. Melnick and his team for preparing the Draft Plan. She asked which stakeholders support the Climate Action and Adaptation Plan. Mr. Melnick stated that he has meet with industry leaders such as auto dealers, chambers of commerce, environmental organizations, and Nature Conservancy to the San Antonio Zoo. Councilmember Cabello Havrda requested a breakdown of the stakeholders from District 6.

Councilmember Viagran thanked Mr. Melnick and his team for the Draft Plan. She requested that same statistical data that Councilmember Rocha Garcia requested. Councilmember Viagran requested who the equity leaders and experts are that were used and/or referenced in the Draft Plan. She thanked Mr. Melnick for the UNESCO sustainability development goals and climate heritage. She stated that climate change was one of the biggest threats to world heritage sites and Missions. Councilmember Viagran asked if the Draft Plan was a framework, strategy, or plan because all of the terms are being used referencing the Climate Action and Adaptation Plan. She also asked what SA Climate Ready was.

Councilmember Perry thanked Mr. Melnick and his team for the Draft Plan. He expressed disappointment from the outset and the main criticism was the cost. He asked for the cost of implementing the Climate Action and Adaptation Plan. He explained that the cost was not included in the Draft Plan however; the cost of doing nothing was outlined in the Draft Plan. Councilmember Perry stated that many components were missing from the plan such as converting buses to CNG. He added that the San Antonio River, the Edwards Aquifer Protection, and Air Quality were all missing from the plan.

Councilmember Pelaez thanked Mr. Melnick for the Draft Plan. He expressed concerns with communicating with stakeholders and challenged Mr. Melnick to talk to all the stakeholders to ensure their needs and position were incorporated into the Draft Plan. Councilmember Pelaez stated that he researched other cities Climate Adaptation Plans and compared them to San Antonio's Draft Plan. He listed Toyota, Microsoft, British Petroleum, United Airlines, IBM, Marriott Hotels, Chevron, Union Pacific, General Motors, Exxon Mobil, Cost Co, Shell Oil, and AT&T; all have a Climate Adaptation Plan. He explained that the majority of them have a goal of carbon neutrality within the next 50 years. He stated that all the companies listed have a fiduciary duty to their investors and the public.

Mayor Nirenberg thanked Mr. Melnick, Councilmember Sandoval and the Community Health and Equity Committee for working on the Climate Action and Adaptation Plan. He noted the importance of declaring support for the Paris Climate Accord. He stated that it was important to make a difference on the world we leave behind to our children and grandchildren. Mayor Nirenberg explained the goal of the Paris Agreement and the primary foundation of the Climate Action and Adaptation Plan was to limit the global temperature increase to one and a half degrees this century rather than the projected two degrees.

CITY MANAGER'S REPORT

28. City Manager's Report

City Manager Erik Walsh reported that last week COSA kicked off the 2020 United Way Charitable Campaign. He stated that San Antonio was one of eight pace setter organizations in the community. The kickoff is a Community Wide Campaign for the United Way at the Alamodome and over 1,300 employees participated in the kickoff. He explained that to date, e-pledges had raised $123,000 towards the goal which was 10% over the goal compared to last year on the same day.

Councilmember Viagran announced that City Council United Way Auction will be held on Friday, August 23, 2019 in the Plaza de Armas Gallery.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mayor Nirenberg recognized Councilmember Rocha Garcia who would celebrate her birthday on August 23, 2019. The City Council sang Happy Birthday to Councilmember Rocha Garcia.

RECESS

Mayor Nirenberg recessed the meeting at 11:41 am and announced that City Council will reconvene at 2:00 pm for the Zoning portion of the Agenda.

RECONVENED

Mayor Nirenberg reconvened the City Council Meeting at 2:08 pm.

CONSENT ZONING ITEMS

Zoning Items 29, P-4, Z-7, and Z-18 were pulled for Individual Consideration.

Mayor Nirenberg called upon the citizens registered to speak:

Jack M. Finger spoke in opposition of Item 29 Alcohol Variance in District 8. He also spoke in opposition to Items 9-4 and Z-7, he added that the Zoning Case would have an adverse impact and not consistent with the residential character of the neighborhood.

Kenny Wilson spoke on behalf of Haven for Hope in favor of Z-16. He stated that Haven for Hope has partnered with the San Antonio Housing Authority since their inception in 2010. He noted that thousands of their residents have been assisted and approval would continue their affordable housing efforts.

Leonard Rodriguez spoke on behalf of the Westside Development Corporation in favor of Item Z-16. He stated that the Alazan Redevelopment was a good use for undeveloped real estate and would be a community resource for affordable housing.

Linda Ortega, with the Historic West Side Residence Association spoke in opposition of Z-16 due to gentrification of the historic west side. She expressed concern with the Zoning Case not meeting the Guadalupe West Side Community Plan.

Irma Hofmann spoke in opposition of Z-16 because she was not heard. She noted that she supported positive and beneficial renovations to the West Side Community but did not support the Alazan Lofts.

Janet Garcia spoke in favor of Z-16 and noted that the residents of the Alazan Courts were also in favor of the Alazan Lofts. As Council Vice President, she has resided at the Alazan Courts for almost two years, was able to improve herself, and proudly stands before City Council to support the Alazan Lofts.

Amelia Valdez Co-Chair of the Historic West Side Resident Association spoke in opposition of Z-16. She noted that she supports Affordable Housing and Development on the West Side but that should be in line with and respect the Guadalupe Community Plan. Per the Community Plan, the direction was to limit housing to low density and two-story buildings. She explained that the Alazan Lofts are requesting IDZ3 zoning which is high density housing.

Leticia Retamozo spoke in opposition of Z-16 and noted that she could have agreed and been supportive if there was community engagement. She expressed concern that the Alazan Loft Project included approximately 12 public housing units that ballooned to 40 units which was too dense for the area.

Alicia Arredondo spoke in opposition of Z-16 and noted that the Alazan Loft Project was an emotionally charged subject that did not conform to the Guadalupe West Side Community Plan.

Terry Castillo spoke in opposition of Z-16 noting that the process should be postponed until the Alazan Lofts were amended to fit into the Guadalupe West Side Community Plan.

Abigail Castillo spoke in favor of Z-16 and expressed that she was a resident of the Casiano Neighborhood for approximately four years. She noted that change was a beautiful process and was needed for Alazan Project and it would beautify the neighborhood.

Velma Pena, Westwood Square Neighborhood Association President spoke in opposition of Z-16. She expressed concern with the density of the proposed Alazan Loft Project and noted that the Project did not adhere to the Guadalupe Community Plan.

Robert Arnold spoke in favor of Z-16 and expressed his appreciation to the San Antonio Housing Authority's due diligence with the Alazan Lofts.

Richard Garcia spoke in opposition of Z-16. He stated that he was an informed voter and demanded respect and honor for the community which had been neglected.

Monique Gibson, Alazan Apache Treasurer spoke in favor of Z-16. She stated that development and positive growth was a gift. She praised Councilmember Gonzales for providing 250 backpacks at her back-to-school event.

Amy Kastley spoke in opposition to Z-16 and provided a handout entitled Section 35-420 Comprehensive, Neighborhood, Community, Perimeter and Sector Plan. Ms. Kastley stated that the Guadalupe West Side Community Plan specified that low density mixed use was recommended for Guadalupe Street. However, the proposed Alazan Loft Project was a high density infill development and not consistent with the Guadalupe West Side Community Plan.

Sarah Gould spoke in favor of Z-16 and mentioned that the former Ruben's Ice House was going to be transformed into a History Museum over time. Her vision for the west side community was a museum focusing on the local area to developing exhibits. She noted that the museum could focus on aspects of history and contemporary issues of importance to the poor and working class community.

Graciela Sanchez spoke in opposition of Z-16 expressing that the proposed four-story buildings were inconsistent with the Community Plan and incompatible with the neighborhood character. She stated that the demolition of the Alazan Courts will displace 1,000 residents. Ms. Sanchez provided a listing of Alazan Meeting Dates and three Maps entitled Alazan-Apache Courts Conceptual Site Plan.

Tony Garcia Tier One Neighborhood Coalition Steering Committee Member and Associate Member of the Historic West Side Resident Association spoke in opposition of Z-16. He expressed disagreement with the City's finding that IDZ-3, High Density Infill Development was consistent with the future land use designation of Low-Density Mixed Use.

Gabriel Velasquez spoke in favor of Z-16. He described the Avenida Guadalupe Neighborhood Association role and bylaws. He noted that the organization worked a number of years on the West Side Master Plan. He explained that the primary purpose of the Master Plan was to serve as a guide.

Yaneth Flores spoke on behalf of the Esperanza Peace & Justice Center in opposition of Z-16. She noted that the proposed Zoning change was not in line with the existing community plans. She expressed support for affordable housing but did not agree with the proposed zoning change.

Susana Segura community organizer for the Alazan Apache Courts spoke in opposition of Z-16. She expressed disappointment with the San Antonio Housing Authority (SAHA). She requested additional community input and public meetings.

Francisco Tavira spoke in opposition of Z-16. He stated that the area needed economic development however; he did not agree with the Alazan Loft proposal. He suggested that the social and cultural development be considered and that the community did not have an opportunity to provide input.

Richard Acosta, President of My City is My Home spoke in opposition of Z-16. He noted that he helped non-profit entities help homeowners protest their property taxes. He noted that approximately 25% of homeowners in that area did not have the homestead exemption that they qualified for. He stated that the proposed Alazan Loft would contribute to increased property taxes.

Linda Ortega, Coordinator of the Officially Registered Historic West Side Residents' Association spoke in opposition of Z-16. She noted that the Association supports development and affordable housing but did not support the proposed IDZ-3 Zoning change. She explained that the Association's concern was with the future impact IDZ-3 would bring to the Historic West Side. She explained that IDZ-3 allows high density infill development and has no height limitations.

Jesse Vidales spoke in opposition of Z-16 and noted that the proposed Alazan Lofts would negatively impact low-income homeowners in the area. He expressed concern with increased rents and increased taxes as a result of the project.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY

A total of 33 written testimonies were submitted in favor of Zoning Item 16.

Betty Eckert spoke in opposition of P-2 and Z-2. She expressed concern with a four-story building in the middle of a neighborhood. She suggested that one-story be removed to build a three-story loft instead.

Ann Englert, Bowen Center for Neighborhood Advocacy Representative spoke in opposition of P-2 and Z-2. She noted that constituent involvement was lacking and should be at the table before decisions are made.

Councilmember Treviño moved to approve the remaining Consent Zoning Items. Councilmember Courage seconded the motion.
