Unless Seller's Default relates to the untruth or incorrectness of Seller's representations for reasons not reasonably within Seller's control, if Seller's Default occurs after Buyer has incurred costs to investigate the Property after the Effective Date and Buyer terminates this contract in accordance with the previous sentence, Seller will also pay to Buyer as liquidated damages the lesser of Buyer's actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred to investigate the Property after the Effective Date or the amount of Buyer's Liquidated Damages, within ten days after Seller's receipt of an invoice from Buyer stating the amount of Buyer's expenses.

- b. Specific Performance. Seller may enforce specific performance of Buyer's obligations under this contract. If title to the Property is awarded to Buyer, the conveyance will be "AS IS."

3. Liquidated Damages. The parties agree that just compensation for the harm that would be caused by a default by either party cannot be accurately estimated or would be very difficult to accurately estimate and that Buyer's Liquidated Damages or the Earnest Money and Seller's Additional Liquidated Damages are reasonable forecasts of just compensation to the non-defaulting party for the harm that would be caused by a default.

4. Attorneys' Fees. If either party retains an attorney to enforce or construe this contract in a court of law with competent jurisdiction, the party prevailing in such litigation is entitled to recover

5. Survival. The obligations of this contract that cannot be performed before termination of this contract or before closing will survive termination of this contract or closing, and the legal doctrine of merger will not apply to these matters. If there is any conflict between the Closing Documents and this contract, the Closing Documents will control.
6. Choice of Law; Venue. This contract will be construed under the laws of the state of Texas, without regard to choice-of-law rules of any jurisdiction. Venue is mandatory and exclusive in Bexar County. Time permitting, the parties will submit in good faith to an alternative dispute resolution process before filing a suit concerning this contract.

b. In the event that, subsequent to conveyance of the Property to Buyer and prior to completion of the improvements approved by Seller, Buyer defaults in or violates its obligations with respect to the construction of the improvements, Seller, at its option, may declare a termination in favor of Seller of the title and of all the rights and interests in and to the Property conveyed by the deed to Buyer and that such title and all rights and interests of Buyer and any assigns or successors in interest to and in the Property, will revert to Seller; Provided, that such condition subsequent and any revesting of title as a result thereof in Seller will always be subject to and limited by and will not defeat, render invalid or limit in any way the lien of any purchase or construction mortgage and any rights or interest provided in the contract for the protection of the holders of such mortgages.

c. Whenever the Seller delivers any notice or demand to Buyer with respect to any breach or default by Buyer in its redevelopment obligations or covenants under the contract, Seller will at the same time forward a copy of such notice or demand to each holder of any mortgage known to Seller.

d. After any breach or default by Buyer as set forth above, each Property/construction mortgagee will have the right, at its option, to cure or remedy such breach or default (or such breach or default to the extent that it relates to the part of the Property covered by its mortgage) and to add the cost thereof to the mortgage debt and the lien of its mortgage; Provided, that if the breach or default is with respect to construction of the improvements, nothing contained herein or any other section of the contract will be deemed to permit or authorize such holder, either before or after foreclosure or action in lieu thereof, to undertake or continue the construction or completion of the improvements (beyond the extent necessary to conserve or protect improvements or construction already made) without first having expressly assumed the obligation to Seller, by written agreement satisfactory to Seller, to complete, in the manner provided in the contract, the improvements on the Property or the part thereof to which the lien or title to such holder relates. Any such holder who properly completes the improvements relating to the Property or applicable part thereof will be entitled, upon written request made to Seller, to a certification or certifications by Sellers to such effect, and any such certification will, if so requested by such holder, mean and provide that any remedies or rights with respect to recapture of or reversion or revesting of title to the Property that Seller has or is entitled to because of failure of Buyer or any successor in interest to the Property, or any part thereof, to cure or remedy any default with respect to the construction of the improvements on other parts or parcels of the Property, will not apply to the part or parcel of the Property to which such certification relates.
