RECONVENED

Mayor Nirenberg reconvened the meeting at 12:35 pm in the B Room and announced that no action had been taken in Executive Session. He addressed the Debt Management Budget Work Session continued from August 15, 2017.

DEBT MANAGEMENT PLAN

Ben Gorzell presented an overview of the types of debt issued and highlighted the city's "AAA" Bond Rating from all three Bond Rating Agencies. He reported that the city had $2.8 billion in outstanding debt with $1.7 billion of that amount consisting of Ad Valorem Debt. He reported the Ad Valorem Tax Rate of $0.55827 and noted that the city provided $47 million in tax relief to seniors and disabled homeowners. He presented on the effective and rollback tax rate and Ad Valorem Debt legal limits and highlighted the "AAA" Bond Rating Reports and their value.

Mr. Gorzell presented an update on the Ad Valorem Debt Management Plan and outlined the assumptions. He reported on the FY 2018 Proposed Capital Budget noting Actual and Planned Issuances. He stated that the Revenue Debt at the Airport totaled $453 million; Convention Center Expansion totaled $548 million; and Stormwater, One Stop, Public Safety Emergency Dispatch, Starbright Toyota, Frost Tower, and Pre-K 4 SA totaling $124 million. He highlighted bond refunding results in which there had been $114.5 million in total gross savings since April 2012. He presented a timeline of future proposed bond issuances.

Mayor Nirenberg stated that it was important to communicate transparently about debt with the citizens and highlighted the debt service tax rate that has remained the same since 2004. Councilmember Courage asked of the city's debt. Mr. Gorzell replied that it was $1.7 billion and that other debt was paid for by their respective users. Councilmember Courage asked of the debt per capita. Mr. Gorzell replied that the Ad Valorem Debt per Capita was $1,105.

Councilmember Brockhouse asked of the last time the tax rate was lowered. City Manager Sculley replied that it was lowered in 2016 by .007 to the rollback rate. Councilmember Brockhouse spoke of the equity needs in property valuations and stated that he would be looking for opportunities to offer true property tax relief to residents. Councilmember Gonzales asked of the debt for dedicated funds such as the Convention Center. Mr. Gorzell replied that it was paid for through Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) funds. Councilmember Perry stated that he concurred with Councilmember Brockhouse with regard to property tax relief for residents. He expressed concern with the great increase in taxes and the small increase in the Median Income.

Mayor Nirenberg thanked staff for the presentation and stated that the meeting would resume in the Council Chambers.

Councilmember Treviño thanked everyone in attendance and stated that he understood the concerns about increased development in the district. He noted that they had met with the stakeholders on many occasions and wanted to assure all that the current zoning on the street was mostly single family residential. He added that the creation of a Historic District should bring a community together and not draw dividing lines down the middle of a block. He encouraged the leaders in the community to consider a new application for Historic Designation in the future.

Councilmember Treviño moved to deny Item Z-1. Councilmember Shaw seconded the motion.

Councilmember Courage stated that this was a quality of life issue and asked of the original staff recommendation for approval. Mrs. Miller replied that staff had recommended approval of the original request when the 51% threshold for support was met. However, that support has decreased and staff no longer recommends approval. Councilmember Sandoval stated that she believed there was a way to preserve the neighborhood without designating the full block as "Historic." Councilmember Shaw requested that staff review the Historic Designation process to ensure that everyone is aware of the impact of the designation.

The motion to deny Item Z-1 prevailed by the following vote:

AYE: 7 - Treviño, Shaw, Viagran, Gonzales, Brockhouse, Sandoval and Perry
