WHEREAS, in 2008, voters approved a Bexar County Venue Tax Program that provided funding in support of amateur sports for the development and expansion of sports complexes to serve local teams and enhance tourism; and

WHEREAS, in instances where these projects are located on City of San Antonio owned land, the City entered into license agreements with facility operators for use of the land; and

WHEREAS, Eastside Christian Action Group (ECAG) was a venue tax recipient and developed the Wheatley Heights Sports Complex including a football field, nine lane running track, a stadium setting, amphitheater, and soccer fields; and

WHEREAS, construction of the Wheatley Heights sports complex at Martin Luther King Park was complete in 2012 and has been serving the community by providing a venue for youth recreation over the past couple of years; and

WHEREAS, to assist ECAG with marketing the sports complex and booking events, the City executed a funding agreement in the amount of $570,000.00 spanning two fiscal years which expired on September 30, 2013; and

WHEREAS, as ECAG transitioned from construction to operations, this start up funding allowed them to extend facility use to over 20,000 youth sports participants and spectators in 2013; and

WHEREAS, the primary term of this License Agreement ends on July 10, 2014; and

WHEREAS, Amendment No. 1 to the License Agreement will allow for the renewal of the current agreement for one year until July 10, 2015; NOW THEREFORE:
