BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

Mr. Calvin R. Ishee, Jr.

Appointed by the Secretary of the Air Force (SECAF) to serve as the single point of contact for all AF Disability matters. Acts on behalf of SECAF in making determinations of fitness for duty, entitlement of benefits, and disposition of service members referred to the Physical Evaluation Board (PEB) process. Acts on behalf of SECAF in making combat-related determinations on individual applications for Combat Related Special Compensation (CRSC) entitlement. Supervises both the Informal Physical Evaluation Board (IPEB) as well as the Formal Evaluation Board (FPEB). Supervises a cadre of Board Presidents, Physicians, Adjudicators, Case Managers, and Policy Personnel, Data Collection team comprised of over 40 military and civilian personnel. Processes in excess of 5,000 cases annually ensuring that all Airmen are treated fairly and consistently as they undergo the PEB process. Supports Air Force active duty, guard and reserve personnel. Provides PEB support to over 80 separate military installations at worldwide locations. Serves as the Air Force's program manager, expert planner, analyst, and serves as advisor to senior officials on all aspects of the DES program.

Born in Ft Walton Beach, Florida at Eglin AFB, Mr. Ishee was raised in a military family moving to many locations. He joined the Air Force family at the age of 15 as a recreation assistant in the Spangdahlem AFB, Fitness Center while still in high school. He graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1982. In 1982 he ran the sports and fitness program for the City of Biloxi, Mississippi before taking the Intramural/Varsity Sports Director's job at Keesler AFB in 1983. In 1986 he was selected as the Community Center director at Keesler Air Force Base. A year later he transferred to the youth center where he remained the director for three years. In 1990 he was promoted to the Chief, Recreation Services. After the merger of MWR and Services, Mr. Ishee was selected as the Combat Support Flight Chief, at Keesler AFB. His extensive knowledge of the Services business resulted in his selection to augment the AETC Operation Readiness Inspection team for three bases in 2002. His food service team was AETC's Hennessy winner in 1999, 2000, 2002 and Air Force winner in 2004. He was then selected as the Deputy for 30th Services Squadron but when the Squadron converted to a Division he served, as its first civilian director. He served as Services Director for Vandenberg AFB, CA where he won Air Force Space Command's (AFSPC) 2005 Senior Civilian of the Year award, was awarded a Quality Step Increase (QSI) as well as the Air Force Civilian Exemplary Service Medal. He has been an active member of the local theatre association, an avid tennis player and extremely involved in improving the quality of life on the local community through various organizations.

On November 19, 2014 the AACOG Board of Directors selected Diane D. Rath to serve as the Agency's Executive Director.

Ms. Rath most recently served as Senior Vice President at Arbor E&T (dba ResCare Workforce Services), where her primary focus was leading a team to ensure talent pipeline through curriculum development for all instructional content, national employer partnerships, programmatic technical assistance and project support as part of the corporate strategy in 26 states with 2,200 employees. During her career at ResCare she also held the positions of Senior Vice President (U.S. Operations) and Senior Vice President (Eastern Region).

In 1996, then Governor George W. Bush appointed her as Chair and Commissioner to the Texas Workforce Commission, where she served until 2008. During her tenure, she oversaw the consolidation of 28 programs from 10 different state agencies to form a $1.2 billion agency with responsibility for services involving federal programs from the U.S Department of Labor, Health and Human Services, and four other federal agencies.

During this time she became recognized as a national leader in workforce development, forging partnerships with economic development and educational entities to meet the workforce needs of Texas businesses. She led the largest devolution of workforce services in the country while improving outcome performance and earning $84 million in national incentive awards; downsized state agency workforce 60%; and in August 2003 she oversaw the largest bond sale issued by the State of Texas [at that time] to innovatively finance benefit payments for the Unemployment Insurance Compensation Fund, saving Texas employers more than $300 million.

Ms. Rath attended TCU, and graduated from UTMB-Galveston.

She is active in the San Antonio community and currently sits (or has sat) on numerous boards and committees. They include:

- Frost Bank- San Antonio, Advisory Board Member, 2003-present
- Texas Conservative Coalition Research Institute, Board Member, 2003-present
- Valero Alamo Bowl, Board Member, 1994-present, Chair 2002
- APHSA Policy Council, 2007-2008
- Bexar County United Way, Board Member 1998-2004
- Christus Santa Rosa Children's Advisory Board, 1994-2008
- Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, Board of Directors 1993-96, Vice-Chair 1993
- JPMorganChase - San Antonio, Advisory Board Member, 1992-2003
- National Institute Metalworking Skills, Board Member 2005-2008
- San Antonio Development Agency, Vice Chair, 1990-94
- San Antonio Water System Board, Vice-Chair 1992-94
- Texas Council on Workforce & Economic Competitiveness, 1995-2003, Chair 1995-1996
- Texas Department of Commerce, Board Member 1995-1996
- Texas Public Education Reform Foundation, Board Member, 2006-2010
- Texas Rehabilitation Commission, Board Member 1989-1992

Major General D. Bruce Smith, USAF (Ret.)

Major General Bruce Smith is currently sole-owner of SBBS Consulting Services. General Smith retired from the Air Force in late 1997 after 33 years of distinguished service. His last assignment in the Air Force was as Commandant, Air War College, Maxwell Air Force Base, AL. There he directed the post-graduate-level programs of the Air Force's senior professional military educational institution and supervised a combined faculty of civilian and military professors teaching over 3,300 senior US and International leaders annually through in-residence and distance-learning methods. The curriculum focused on executive leadership, strategic planning, regional studies, and geo-politics.

After the Air Force, General Smith joined Lockheed Martin Corporation as Southern Region Director for Information Support Services in New Orleans, LA with primary contracts focused on Human Resource IT systems for the Navy and DoD. He subsequently accepted a Business Development position with Lockheed Martin Systems Integration in San Antonio, TX. He retired from Lockheed Martin in 2004 to form SBBS Consulting Services.

The general graduated from the Air Force Academy in June 1964. In early assignments, he served as a B-52 aircraft commander/standardization and evaluation instructor pilot. He then held several positions as an F-4 fighter pilot, along with operational, staff, and command positions at squadron and wing levels in both F-4 and B-52 units. The general was a Joint Specialty Officer (JSO) and served as a regional political-military affairs officer in the offices of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He served on the headquarters staffs of Strategic Air Command, US Air Forces in Europe, and US Forces Command. At Forces Command, he was both the Senior Air Force representative and the J-5 (Director of Plans, Programs and Policy) where he supported Operation Just Cause, oversaw mobilization of all Army reserve components for Desert Shield/Desert Storm; led fiscal Operations & Maintenance (O&M) programming submissions in excess of $450 million annually for the largest military command in the Department of Defense; and coordinated all military support to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and other civil authorities including homeland defense, disaster recovery and continuity of government missions.

His senior command experience included Commander of the 97th Bombardment Wing at Blytheville Air Force Base, AR, and Deputy Commander, Sixth Allied Tactical Air Force (NATO)/Senior US military officer in Turkey. The general was a command pilot with more than 4,900 flying hours primarily in bomber and fighter aircraft, including 820 combat hours. His experience included over 17 years of bomber/fighter nuclear operations. He also held parachutist wings from the US Army and pilot wings from the Turkish Air Force.

In addition to his Bachelor of Science degree from the Air Force Academy, General Smith has a Master's degree with Honors in Public Administration from Auburn University. His leadership education within the Air Force includes Air Command & Staff College, Air War College, and the Senior Joint Warfighter Course. He taught senior leadership, strategic planning and ethics classes for both the Air War College and the Air University Commanders' Courses. General Smith also completed the National/International Program for Senior Executives, John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University. Subsequent to the Air Force, he attended the Strategic Leadership Institute, Robert C. Goizueta Business School, Emory University. He also completed the Sandler Sales Institute Gold Course. He is a graduate of the New Orleans Emerging Civic Leaders Program and the Louisiana Center for Non-Profit Boards Certification. He is a Class IX graduate of the San Antonio United Way Masters of Leadership (MLP) program.

General Smith serves on the National Board for the Order of Daedalians; the Board of Directors for the Returning Heroes Home (RHH) based in San Antonio, TX, the San Antonio Lighthouse for the Blind, and as Chairman of the Board for Blue Skies of Texas (Air Force Villages, Inc.), a non-profit Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC). He is a member of the San Antonio City Airport Advisory Commission. He was the Chairman of the Daedalians Foundation, 2010-2014. He also served on the Board for the Center for Strategic Studies in the Americas (CSSAM), a regional think tank from 2006-2009 and as a member of the Mayor's and Governor's Military Advisory Commissions of New Orleans and Louisiana respectively from 1997-2000. He is a member of the Air Force Association, World Affairs Council of San Antonio, San Antonio Sports, Air Force Academy Association of Graduates Sabre Society, Professional Association of Dive Instructors (PADI), AOPA, Quiet Birdmen, and Rotary International.
