Please provide a brief narrative outlining your reasons for seeking appointment to this board or commission:	Home is different from where you live. I relocated to San Antonio in June of 2011 and began establishing my career here at JM Waller. I have become involved in the local AIA chapter and the San Antonio Post of the Society of American Military Engineers (SAME). I have engaged with San Antonio's educational institutions volunteering as a critic for both interior design and architecture reviews at UTSA. I recently struck out on my own and founded ryb studio, my new architecture practice. San Antonio is where I have chosen to live, work, serve, and stake my practice. I have come to love San Antonio as my home, but realize that the greatness of a city is dependent on the hard work of many on a continuous basis. Citizens must raise their hand and be willing to serve in order to secure a bright future. This is something that comes naturally to me, and I enjoy the process. I would be honored to serve the city in this capacity.

RE: Appointment of Rob Robbins, AIA to the City's Planning Commission.

Dear Mr. Sanchez:

AIA San Antonio, a chapter of the American Institute of Architects with over 550 local professional members, strongly recommends Rob Robbins as a designate for the City's Planning Commission.

As an Austin transplant, Rob has taken the initiative to quickly become engaged in our architectural profession, dedicating time and personal resources to furthering our organization's belief in livable communities. Rapidly becoming rooted in San Antonio, he has proven his commitment to improving the network of community. Serving at many scales, he has had roles on his condominium association, worked with multiple volunteer groups, and higher education design studios. Perhaps most importantly, he has started his own practice here, and responds as not only a resident, but also an architect and a business owner.

Our chapter firmly believes that the City of San Antonio would be well served by having Rob Robbins on the Planning Commission.

Sincerely,
