

Lucy M. Hall

Lucy M. Hall is a retired educator with over thirty years experience working for the Edgewood Independent School District. She began as an Elementary School Teacher and moved on to become a Curriculum Writer, Chapter I Reading Supervisor, Elementary School Principal, Secondary School Principal, and Cluster I Administrator. In 1995, Ms. Hall served as the Executive Director of the District's Elementary Division. She has also served as an adjunct Instructor at Our Lady of the Lake University. Ms. Hall also served the community through her work as a member of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, Texas Alliance for Black School Educators, and Edgewood School Board. Community service endeavors include a role as President of the Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women; Chair of the San Antonio Local Development Corporation; Member of the Texas Council Child Welfare Board; and President of the Region 8 Child Welfare Board.