SECTION 1. Reinspection Fee. Subsection 11-16(c)(1) of the City Code is amended by deleting the existing language in its entirety and adding the following language:

A reinspection fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) shall be assessed for each inspection or reinspection when work for which an inspection or reinspection is requested is not approved. A reinspection fee may also be assessed when the permit is not properly posted on the work site, when the approved plans are not readily available to the inspector, when access is not provided on the date for which inspection is requested or for noncompliance with approved plans, requiring reinspection and approval of the fire official. All reinspection fees shall be paid before final release of public utilities and issuance of the certificate of occupancy.

SECTION 2. Watercraft Rescue Fee. The City Code is hereby amended by adding Section 11-23 to read as follows:

- (a) A watercraft rescue fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00) shall be assessed for the rescue of a distressed watercraft (one suffering from mechanical issues, for example).
- (b) A watercraft rescue fee of one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200.00) shall be assessed for the rescue of an overturned watercraft.

SECTION 3. Bicycle Paramedic Stand-by Fee. Subsection 11-73(a) of the City Code is amended by deleting the existing language in its entirety and adding the following language:

A bicycle paramedic stand-by fee for emergency medical services requested for special event activities shall be assessed at a rate of one hundred ten dollars ($110.00) per hour. The fee shall cover the cost of staffing the event with two (2) paramedics on bicycles. Service shall be for a minimum of two (2) hours, with additional hours or fractions thereof, to be paid at the full rate of one hundred ten dollars ($110.00). Requests for service will be coordinated through the EMS administrative office.

SECTION 4. Full Force and Effect. All other provisions of the City Code shall remain in full force and effect, unless expressly amended by other provisions of this Ordinance.

(k) (l) The city manager or the manager's designee may, without further council action, offer free parking or discounts from the parking rates specified in section 19-199 when in the best interests of the city. Nonexclusive examples possibly appropriate for exercising this authority are special events held downtown by local companies and events held in San Antonio by out-of-town organizations. The city manager or the manager's designee may further offer discounts to local entities negotiating for parking for employees or other large groups. They further may, for the customers of downtown businesses making a request, match lower prices offered by private-sector parking competitors. The city manager or the manager's designee may develop policies and procedures to put this subsection into effect, including validation or similar programs, and may, without council action, terminate any agreement reached under the authority of this subsection. The city manager or the manager's designee may reduce generally all or any part of the rates in set in section 19-199 if they find the rates are so high that they reduce parking system revenue.
