

Dr. Gloria “Gogi” Dickson

Dr. Gogi Dickson is an educator with more than 30 years of worldwide experience as a classroom teacher, reading coordinator, campus principal, district assistant superintendent, university professor, training consultant and business entrepreneur. Gogi's education experience spans places and countries such as Korea, West Point, Germany, Stuttgart, England, Leavenworth and Williamsburg to name a few. Despite the moves with her military husband, she was able to further her education, receiving degrees from Ladycliff College New York, University of Southern California, and her PHD from Texas A&M University. Her academic studies focused on subjects as change factors, leadership, management, curriculum, global education and finance.

Upon returning to her hometown, she focused on community service projects, including work on various boards and commissions related to education and child development. She is a former chair of the Mayor's Commission on Children and the Family, and she chaired the Education Committee of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce. She also chaired the Education Committee of the San Antonio and Bexar County BRAC Commission. She served on the Governor's Texas Youth Commission and the 2012 San Antonio Bond Advisory Committee. She presently serves on the Board of Roy Maas Youth Alternatives and is a member of the Dean's Advisory Council of the Texas A&M College of Education and Human Development.
