

SELF-MONITORING STANDARDS FOR YOUTH RECREATION PROGRAMS

City Council

April 13, 2017

Parks & Recreation Department

2016 PROGRAM INFORMATION

• 5,600 Participants

• 62 Sites

• Over 300 Summer Staff

PARTNERING SCHOOL DISTRICTS

Program Registration

A group of children are playing basketball in a gymnasium. They are wearing various colored shirts (yellow, blue, orange, red, green) and shorts. A woman in a green shirt is standing on the right side of the court, possibly a coach or teacher. The gymnasium has a green wall and a basketball hoop in the background.

Community Center
Registration
Saturday, April 1

School Site Registration
Saturday, April 22 &
Saturday, April 29

Full and Reduced Program Fees
Income Verification Process

Program Activities

ANNUAL ADOPTION OF SELF MONITORING STANDARDS INCLUDE:

- Minimum Staffing Ratios
- Minimum Staff Qualifications
- Minimum Facility Health & Safety Standards
- Monitoring and Enforcement Mechanisms

SELF MONITORING STANDARDS

- ✓ Requires annual adoption by City Council
- ✓ Operated under self-monitoring standards since 2003

ACTION

Opportunity for public input occurred during the Parks & Recreation Board Meeting held on February 27, 2017

Parks & Recreation Board supports adoption of the Self Monitoring Standards

Staff recommends approval of the Self Monitoring Standards

