- 27. Approving the following two ordinances related to the Downtown Public Improvement District: [Lori Houston, Assistant City Manager; John Jacks, Director, Center City Development & Operations Department]

2018-09-20-0753

- 27A. Public hearing and consideration of an Ordinance approving the levy of a Special Assessment for the Downtown Public Improvement District; levying an assessment rate for the Fiscal Year 2019 at $0.15 per $100 value of real property in the Downtown Public Improvement District and $0.09 per $100 value of residential condominiums; and approving the Fiscal Year 2019 Service & Assessment Plan for the Downtown Public Improvement District.

2018-09-20-0754

- 27B. Ordinance authorizing the negotiation and execution of the Second Amended and Restated Contract for Improvements and/or Services in the San Antonio Public Improvement District with Centro Public Improvement District to provide specified services and develop Annual Service and Assessment Plans for the Downtown Public Improvement District for the period ending September 30, 2023.

John Jacks presented information on the Downtown Public Improvement District (PID). He stated that it was authorized through 2023 and managed by the Centro PID. He noted that staff was requesting authorization of the FY 2019 Assessment Rate noting that it was 15 and 9 cents per $100 valuation for Commercial and Residential, respectively. He added that they were also requesting approval of the FY 2019 Service and Assessment Plan. He presented a map of the Downtown PID and outlined the process: 1) Notices mailed to 746 property owners; 2) PID Board Approval; and 3) San Antonio Express-News publication. He highlighted 2018 Accomplishments and outlined core services for 2019. He added that reporting and monitoring requirements would be strengthened and background checks would be implemented for all employees.

Mayor Nirenberg declared the public hearing open and called upon the citizens registered to speak.

Lee Talamantez, General Manager for Go Rio, stated that he was speaking on behalf of Hope Andrade and Lisa Wong in support of Centro San Antonio. He spoke of the great services they provide and stated that the Ambassadors made everyone feel welcome.

Monty McCann stated that he was a Police Officer for the San Antonio Police Department and member of the Hope Team. He spoke of their outreach to homeless in the downtown area and noted their great partnership with Centro.

Suhail Arastu representing Musical Bridges Around the World spoke in support of Centro and highlighted the energy and momentum in the downtown area.

Gary Perez, Miguel Villarreal, and Eddie Romero representing the Centro Ambassadors addressed the City Council. Mr. Villarreal stated that he enjoyed working to make the downtown area clean, safe, and friendly. Mr. Perez added that he had become an Ambassador to learn what people thought about San Antonio and share its unwritten History.

Kenny Wilson of Haven for Hope spoke of their great collaboration with Centro and stated that he was pleased that they hired individuals from Haven for Hope.

David Adelman, Chair of the Public Improvement District (PID), spoke in support of the assessment and stated that the property owners were pleased with the services provided.

Kris Keller stated that he owned property in the PID and was opposed to the assessment noting that he did not benefit from Centro Services. He expressed concern that a new apartment complex being built next to him would be exempt from the assessment fees.

There being no other citizens registered to speak, Mayor Nirenberg declared the public hearing closed.

Councilmember Treviño thanked the Ambassadors for their great work and stated that he was pleased with their efforts to make downtown a great place for visitors and locals.

Councilmember Treviño move to adopt the Ordinances for Items 27A and 27B. Councilmember Shaw seconded the motion.

Councilmember Viagran asked of the background checks that would be implemented. Mr. Jacks replied that Centro received PID Funds and anyone handling those funds would be required to have a background check. Warren Wilkinson stated that all employees were subject to background checks. Councilmember Viagran asked of the funding for activation.

Mr. Wilkinson replied that there was $100,000 included in the budget for same. Mr. Jacks added that the city contributes $250,000. Councilmember Viagran asked of the UTSA Downtown Campus. Sheryl Sculley stated that UTSA would be expanding their campus to accommodate 10,000 more students. Councilmember Viagran asked who property owners could call if there was an issue. Mr. Wilkinson replied that they could call the Centro Office located at 219 Travis Street.

Councilmember Shaw stated that he had the privilege to spend a morning working downtown with Centro Ambassadors and greatly appreciated the experience. He recognized an Ambassador named Maria who he worked alongside that took great pride in her job.

Councilmember Perry asked if the assessment rate was the same or had been increased. Mr. Jacks replied that the assessment rate had remained the same. Councilmember Perry asked if the fee was voluntary or mandatory. Mr. Jacks explained that the fee was governed by State Statute which allows property owners to petition the city to create a PID. He noted that it requires that a 51% majority of the property owners sign the petition. Councilmember Perry asked of the percentage of property owners that had signed the petition. Mr. Jacks reported that 56% of the property owners had signed the petition.

Councilmember Brockhouse asked if there were any property owners exempt from the assessment fee. Mr. Jacks replied that any property owner that paid taxes was required to pay the assessment fee. Councilmember Brockhouse requested a list of property owners that were exempt from the assessment fee and a map of the PID Service Area. He stated that he would like to ensure that those paying the assessment fee were receiving services. David Adelman noted that Centro was not able to provide services on private property and that there were many benefits to being part of the PID.

Councilmember Sandoval asked if Centro could make information regarding the Infrastructure Maintenance Plan available to PID Members. Mr. Wilkinson replied that they would provide maps to include maintenance and landscaping plans. Councilmember Sandoval asked for further clarification regarding exemptions from the assessment fee. Mr. Jacks stated that a public property or tax-exempt entity was exempt from the assessment fee.

Mayor Nirenberg thanked Centro for their work and stated that the central core of San Antonio had been transformed over the last 20 years due to development and the great work of the Ambassadors.

The motion to approve Items 27A and 27B prevailed by the following vote:

AYE: 10 - Mayor Nirenberg, Treviño, Shaw, Viagran, Saldaña, Gonzales,
Brockhouse, Sandoval, Courage, and Perry

ABSENT: 1 - Pelaez

28. City Manager's Report

ROBERT WOOD JOHNSON FOUNDATION CULTURE OF HEALTH PRIZE

Mrs. Sculley reported that San Antonio was the winner of the 2018 Culture of Health Prize awarded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. She stated that the National Prize honors communities for their efforts to ensure that all residents have the opportunity to live healthier lives. She noted that to earn the prize; San Antonio had to demonstrate how their efforts reflect the six Culture of Health Criteria: 1) Defining Health in the broadest possible terms; 2) Committing to sustainable systems changes and policy-oriented long-term solutions; 3) Creating conditions that give everyone a fair and just opportunity to reach their best possible health; 4) Harnessing the collective power of leaders, partners, and community members; 5) Securing and making the most of available resources; and 6) Measuring and sharing progress and results. She mentioned that this year's application was spearheaded by the San Antonio Metropolitan Health District and showcased examples such as Pre-K4SA and Haven for Hope. She added that San Antonio would receive a $25,000 cash prize and national platform to share practices and lessons learned.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

Mrs. Sculley reported that National Night Out (NNO) was observed annually on the first Tuesday in October. She stated that each year, San Antonio has one of the largest events in the nation with tens of thousands of residents throughout the city meeting to reduce crime and strengthen neighborhood bonds. She noted that in 2017; over 1,200 community organizations registered their event with the San Antonio Police Department (SAPD). She reported that as of today, there were over 400 organizations registered and SAPD would be accepting registrations through September 28th. She mentioned that NNO had been selected as an Official Tricentennial Event this year and the official kick-off would be held on September 29th at the Historic VFW Post 76 beginning at 9:00 am.

SICLOVÍA

Mrs. Sculley reported that the next Siclovía Event was scheduled for Sunday, September 30, 2018 from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm. She stated that the route would run along Broadway from Mahnke Park to Madison Square Park on Lexington Avenue. She noted that this would mark the 15th Siclovía Event for San Antonio. She added that Siclovía was a free family-friendly event that encourages residents and visitors to get active and explore the city on car-free streets. She stated that one of the newest features at Siclovía was the inclusion of adaptive bikes that people could try out and invited everyone to attend.

2018 JAZZ'SALIVE

Mrs. Sculley reported that the San Antonio Parks Foundation had announced details for the 35th Annual Jazz'sAlive Music Festival. She stated that the free outdoor music and culture festival would take place on Friday, September 21st from 5:00 pm to 12:00 midnight and Saturday, September 22nd from 10:00 am to 11:00 pm in Travis Park. She noted that the festival would include jazz music as well as a creative youth village, yoga in the park, and a wide variety of food vendors. She added that all funds raised would support and accelerate impactful and transformative park projects and invited everyone to attend.

RECESSED

Mayor Nirenberg recessed the meeting at 10:42 am and announced that the meeting would resume at 2:00 pm for Zoning.

RECONVENED

Mayor Nirenberg reconvened the meeting at 2:05 pm and addressed the Consent Zoning Items.
