I have served for 14 years in various locations and leadership roles: Health Care Executive Apprenticeship July 2018 - Current Army Medicine Junior Leader Instructor September 2017 - July 2018 Deputy, Chief Resource Management April 2016 - August 2017 Company Commander August 2014 - April 2016 Chief Logistics Plans Officer March 2013 - August 2016 Executive Officer (various locations) August 2008 - March 2013 Department of Defense Financial Management Certification Level 1
Describe your Volunteer Experience & Community Service	As a child my parents instilled volunteerism in me. I started out in the nursing home with my grandmother filling water containers for the elderly and making friends over the summer with the residents. In middle school I volunteered with the special needs students at my school and the journey has continued. Every new duty station I find opportunities to give back to the community. In Germany I worked with my church to feed the homeless every third Sunday and provide a church service. In Korea I volunteered to feed the homeless and teach English every Saturday morning with the exception of holidays. Since being assigned to San Antonio I have volunteered at the Food Bank and the Ronald McDonald House.
	San Antonio is a vibrant city that is growing and developing robustly everyday. There's a dense population of military and military
