

This is a detailed street map of the San Antonio area, showing a network of streets and a highlighted purple route. The map includes major highways like IH 35 and IH 70, and numerous local streets. A purple line traces a path through the city, starting from the north, passing through the downtown area, and ending near the south. The map also shows the River Walk and various landmarks like the Alamo Plaza. A north arrow is located in the top right corner.
