Notwithstanding the foregoing, a request for landmark designation may be made and approved by the city council. To the extent that this subsection conflicts with any other provisions of this chapter, this paragraph shall control except for buildings, objects, sites, structures, or clusters heretofore designated as local landmarks or districts, National Register landmarks or districts, state historic landmarks or sites, or state archaeological landmarks or sites. Requests for designation shall be made on a form obtained from the city historic preservation officer. Completed request forms shall be returned to the office of historic preservation for processing. Owner consent for historic landmark designation shall be required unless a city council resolution to proceed with the designation has been approved.  2. Decision. The historic preservation officer shall refer a completed application for historic landmark designation to the historic and design review commission. Property owners of proposed historic landmarks shall be notified of the historic and design review commission hearing by the historic preservation officer by mail prior to a historic and design review commission hearing for historic landmark designation. Upon submittal of the historic and design review commission's recommendation, the proposed historic district or landmark designation shall be submitted to the zoning commission for its review recommendations along with its finding of historic significance. The zoning commission and the city council shall process the application as prescribed in section 35-421 of this chapter and this section. The zoning commission shall schedule a hearing on the historic and design review commission recommendation to be held within sixty (60) days of receipt of such recommendation and shall forward its recommendation to city council which shall schedule a hearing to be held within sixty (60) days of council's receipt of such recommendation. Upon passage of any ordinance

In order to be eligible for historic landmark designation, properties shall meet at least three (3) of the criteria listed. Additionally, all designated landmarks and districts shall demonstrate clear delineation of the legal boundaries of such designated resources.
- b. Criteria for Evaluation.
 5. Its embodiment of distinguishing characteristics of an architectural style valuable for the study of a period, type, method of construction, or use of indigenous materials;
 8. Its historical, architectural, or cultural integrity of location, design, materials, and workmanship;
 13. It bears an important and significant relationship to other distinctive structures, sites, or areas, either as an important collection of properties or architectural style or craftsmanship with few intrusions, or by contributing to the overall character of the area according to the plan based on architectural, historic or cultural motif.

FINDINGS:

- a. The request for landmark designation was initiated by the property owner.
- b. HISTORIC CONTEXT: The property at 135 Leopold includes a single-story free classic Queen Anne residence built in 1908 by Louis Loessberg for Albert and Emma Merklen with three rear accessory buildings. It is located in the Lavaca neighborhood of City Council District 1. James Mark Shannon currently owns the property. Albert and Emma Merklen purchased Lot 10 in 1908 from Emil Scherrer, whose late father Leopold Scherrer is the namesake of this street. In September 1908, the Merklens contracted Louis Loessberg to build their home. The house was built in the free classic Queen Anne style, popular in the U.S. from 1880 to 1910. Typical features of this style found on the subject structure include a pyramidal roof with lower intersecting gables, classic (round) columns, decorative leaded glass windows found on the gable and in the front door. The Merklens added to the house by 1931. The Merklen Family retained ownership of the property through three generations, until 1996, when it was sold the home to the current owner. The rear accessory structure dates to between 1952 and 1963; the garage was added by 1931. The shed-roofed screened-in porch at the north edge of the parcel was built by the current owner.
- c. SITE CONTEXT: The structure is located on the north side of Leopold St, on a block bounded to the south by Leopold St, the west by S Presa St, the north by Lotus Ave, and the west by Panama Ave and N. U.S. Hwy 281. the property is located in an area bordered by three local historic districts (Lavaca to the north, King William to the northwest, and Mission to the southwest) and in a neighborhood that contains multiple individual landmarks. Nearby individual landmarks include 115 Leopold, 122 Leopold, 131 Leopold, 214 Lotus, and 224 Lotus. The parcel has a divorced concrete sidewalk with xeriscaped easement, and a concrete sidewalk leading from the street to the front porch. A wood picket fence about three feet tall encloses the front yard, which has tall wood gates under a pergola at the center. The concrete path and steps to the front porch are clad in stone. The rear garage is accessed via an alley that runs along the north side of the parcel. The backyard is enclosed using a combination of live bamboo, wood and bamboo fencing, corrugated steel, and mesquite. Much of the backyard is covered in grass, with the north end paved in decomposed stone.
- d. ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION: The house has a standing-seam metal pyramidal roof with intersecting wings and a separate shed roof over the wood front porch. There are dormers on the north and south sides of the pyramidal roof. The porch is supported by classic columns with a short balustrade. The house is clad in wood siding, with decorative shingles in the north and east gables and on the dormers; the skirt is clad in stucco. The primary entrance is a 15-lite wood door with a transom. The gable on the primary elevation has a wood sash window with leaded glass upper lite over a single-lite sash. Other windows are two-over-two with wood sashes. There north elevation has a door at center flanked by two-over-two wood windows under a cantilevered roof. There is a wood casement window west of the cantilevered roof. The rear concrete porch and path leading to rear accessory structures are clad in stone. The southernmost accessory structure has a saltbox form, standing seam metal roof, sliding barn doors, and is clad in cedar shingles. The end-gabled garage, also clad in shingles, and has a standing-seam metal roof and opens to the north. Both structures have exposed rafter tails. The shed-roof screened-in porch at the north end of the lot is wood framed. Character defining features of 135 Leopold include the pyramidal roof with dormers, wood front porch with classic columns and short balustrade under a separate shed roof, decorative shingles in the north and east gables, decorative shingles on dormers, leaded-glass windows and doors (where present), two-over-two wood windows (where present), wood casement window on north elevation, and the end-gabled garage with exposed rafter tails.

- e. EVALUATION: In order to be eligible for historic landmark designation, properties shall meet at least three (3) of the 16 criteria listed. Staff evaluated the structure against all 16 criteria and determined that it was consistent with UDC sec. 35-607(b):
 - 5. Its embodiment of distinguishing characteristics of an architectural style valuable for the study of a period, type, method of construction, or use of indigenous materials; the house is an example of a free classic Queen Anne residence, a style popular in the U.S. from 1880 to 1910.
 - 8. Its historical, architectural, or cultural integrity of location, design, materials, and workmanship; the house is an example of a multigenerational home, built for Albert and Emma Merklen passed down two subsequent generations of the Merklen Family.
 - 13. It bears an important and significant relationship to other distinctive structures, sites, or areas, either as an important collection of properties or architectural style or craftsmanship with few intrusions, or by contributing to the overall character of the area according to the plan based on architectural, historic or cultural motif; the property is located in an area bordered by three local historic districts (Lavaca to the north, King William to the northwest, and Mission to the southwest) and in a neighborhood that contains multiple individual landmarks. Staff has identified this area as an eligible local historic district; should this part of the Lavaca neighborhood choose to designate, the house would be considered contributing.
- f. The City offers a tax incentive for the substantial rehabilitation of historic properties because historic landmarks possess cultural and historical value and contribute to the overall quality and character of the City and its neighborhoods. If historic designation is approved, rehabilitation and restoration work may be eligible for this incentive. State and Federal tax incentives are also available for properties listed on the National Register of Historic Places and provide substantial relief for rehabilitation projects.
- g. If the HDRC approves the Finding of Historic Significance, then the recommendation for designation is submitted to the zoning commission. The zoning commission will schedule a hearing and then forward its recommendation to the City Council. City Council has the ultimate authority to approve the historic designation zoning overlay.
- h. Per UDC Sec. 35-453, once the commission makes a recommendation for designation, property owners must receive a written approval (a Certificate of Appropriateness) for any exterior work until the City Council makes their final decision.

RECOMMENDATION:

Staff recommends approval of a finding of historic significance and that the Historic and Design Review Commission should recommend approval for the landmark designation of 135 Leopold St to the Zoning Commission and to the City Council based on findings a through e.

Statement of Significance

Property Address: 135 Leopold

1. Application Details

Applicant: James Mark Shannon
Type: Application for Historic Landmark Designation
Date Received: 9 April 2021

2. Findings

The property at 135 Leopold includes a single-story free classic Queen Anne residence built in 1908 by Louis Loessberg for Albert and Emma Merklen¹ with three rear accessory buildings. It is located in the Lavaca neighborhood of City Council District 1. James Mark Shannon currently owns the property.

In 1898, Emil Scherrer was deeded land east of S Presa St by his parents, Leopold and Anna Scherrer.² Leopold and Anna lived at 1618 S Presa,³ now addressed 1626 S Presa and located at the northwest corner of S Presa and Leopold St. On July 22, 1899, son Albert found Leopold dead in his grape orchard with a gunshot wound to the head.⁴ Albert later testified he believed the death was accidental, stating there was a .22-caliber rifle beside Leopold when he was found.⁵ When Emil's new block first appears in the city directory in 1907,⁶ it is named Leopold St after his father.

Emil Scherrer sold Lot 10 along Leopold St to Albert and Emma Merklen in April 1908.⁷ In September 1908, the Merklens contracted Louis Loessberg to build their home.⁸ The house was built in the free classic Queen Anne style, popular in the U.S. from 1880 to 1910. Typical features of this style found on the subject structure include a pyramidal roof with lower intersecting gables, classic (round) columns, decorative leaded glass windows found on the gable and in the front door.⁹ The current owners added the colored glass to these lites, as well as the decorative trim seen around fenestration.¹⁰

Albert Merklen worked for various meat markets in his early years on Leopold St, and later became a market manager for Piggly-Wiggly.¹¹ His son Walter was employed in the same line of work, eventually settling into a position with meat-packing company Swift & Co.¹² The Merklen Family owned the property until 1996, deeding it down through three generations. Emma passed away at home in 1940;¹³ Albert resided in the home until his death in 1968.¹⁴ The year before he passed, Albert deeded 135 Leopold to sons Herbert and Walter;¹⁵ following their father's death, Herbert deeded his half of the property to Walter.¹⁶ The Merklen Family retained ownership of the property until 1996, when Walter's daughters Carolyn and Marilyn sold the home to the current owner, James Mark Shannon.¹⁷

The house as it now appears has a larger footprint than was built by Loessberg for the Merklens in 1908. In 1912, the house appears in a T-plan, with covered porches on the north and south sides of an intersecting wing. By 1931, the house has a larger footprint, though it retains its T-shape and porches at the north and south sides.¹⁸ The owner reports the roof of the original house is still visible from the newer attic space.¹⁹

135 Leopold first appears on the 1912 Sanborn with a small rear accessory structure,²⁰ but the footprint does not match either of the current structures that sit along the west edge of the parcel. By 1931, the property includes the garage,²¹ which still stands at the end of the alley-accessed driveway. The long and low accessory structure that sits between the garage and house was built between 1952 (when it does not appear on the Sanborn map²²) and 1963. Historic aerials from 1963 clearly show the structure along the west edge of the parcel; trees obscure this part of the backyard in the 1955 aerials.²³ The current owner reports he built the shed-roofed screened porch and at the north end of the parcel, added cedar shingles to the accessory structure closest to the house, and added the decorative trim and scrollwork found around fenestration and in the front gable of the house.²⁴

by three local historic districts (Lavaca to the north, King William to the northwest, and Mission to the southwest) and in a neighborhood that contains multiple individual landmarks. Staff has identified this area as an eligible local historic district; should this part of the Lavaca neighborhood choose to designate, the house would be considered contributing.

5. Staff Recommendation

A property must meet at least three of the 16 criteria used to evaluate eligibility for landmark designation, and this assessment determines that 135 Leopold meets this threshold. Therefore, staff recommends a finding of historic significance for the property at 135 Leopold. Further research may reveal additional significance associated with this property.

While not required by the Unified Development Code, this document has been prepared by OHP staff that meet the Secretary of the Interior's professional qualification standards for Architectural History as defined in 36 CFR Part 61.

To the Office of Historic Preservation,

I am seeking Historic Landmark Designation for my property at 135 Leopold Street . We have lived in this home since 1996 and we have seen & contributed to the revitalization of our neighborhood throughout the years. We have carefully cared for and maintained our lovely home and are asking for consideration to have our home designated a Historical landmark in the Lavaca neighborhood. Our home is of the Folk Victorian style seen throughout the Lavaca neighborhood.

Our home fits the criteria for Historic Landmark Designation under the Unified Development Code (UDC) 35-607, subsection (b) Criteria For Evaluation as follows:

- 5. its embodiment of distinguishing characteristics of an architectural style valuable for the study of a period, type, method of construction, or use of indigenous materials;
- 8. its historical, architectural, or cultural integrity of location, design, materials, and workmanship;
- 10. its character as an established and geographically definable neighborhood, united by culture, architectural style or physical plan and development;
- 11. it is distinctive in character, interest or value; strongly exemplifies the cultural, economic, social, ethnic or historical heritage of San Antonio, Texas or the United States;
- 12. it is an important example of a particular architectural type or specimen;
- 13. it bears an important and significant relationship to other distinctive structures, sites, or areas, either as an important collection of properties or architectural style or craftsmanship with few intrusions, or by contributing to the overall character of the area according to the plan based on architectural, historic or cultural motif;

My main resource is the Texas Historical Commission and our wonderful Lavaca Neighborhood. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

James Shannon
