The City Council of San Antonio convened in the “B” Room of the Municipal Plaza Building. City Clerk Leticia Vacek took the Roll Call noting a quorum with the following Councilmembers present:

PRESENT: 8 - Treviño, Hall, Saldaña, Gonzales, Sandoval, Pelaez, Courage, and Perry

ABSENT: 3 - Mayor Nirenberg, Viagran, and Brockhouse

Mrs. Vacek announced that Councilmember Viagran was attending the Women in the World Summit; Councilmember Brockhouse was ill; and Mayor Nirenberg was in Austin testifying before the State Legislature. In the absence of Mayor Nirenberg, Mayor Pro Tem Hall presided over the meeting.

1. Briefing by the San Antonio Metropolitan Health District on the development of its new strategic plan for fiscal year 2020 - 2023 [Colleen M. Bridger, MPH, PhD, Interim Assistant City Manager; Jennifer Herriot, Interim Director, Health]

Dr. Colleen Bridger stated that 25 major health issues for Bexar County were presented and Bexar County Residents were surveyed and narrowed down to 10. She noted that over 4,000 responses were received from Bexar County Residents of which 74% were from females. She stated that the process for communicating information and gathering input began last year during Budget Events sponsored by SA Speakup. She noted that an interactive survey board was displayed at all SA Speakup events and attendees received three stickers to place on the board indicating their top three major health issues. She stated that electronic surveys via numerous social media platforms, websites, local media outlets, partner organizations, and Universities were distributed. She noted that paper surveys were distributed via community organizations and Metro Health Programs.

Dr. Bridger reported that the following 10 major health issues were identified: 1) Access to health services; 2) Aging Issues; 3) Dental Health; 4) Diabetes; 5) Drug and Alcohol Abuse; 6) Housing Issues; 7) Mental Health; 8) Nutrition; 9) Traumatic childhood events; and 10) Violence. She noted that Jennifer Herriott would expand on the process to narrow the 10 major health issues to four.

Jennifer Herriott stated that in mid-February, all Metro Health Staff were provided an opportunity to participate in a survey to assist in determining the top two to three focus areas for each of the top four health priorities. She noted that 150 responses were received and four work groups were formed which were comprised of subject matter experts within Metro Health. She stated that meetings were initiated with key stakeholders and more meetings were scheduled. She noted that an initial listening session was held in March 2019 and additional community input opportunities were being planned. She stated that the first focus area under access to care was preventing depression and anxiety and three potential strategies were identified regarding pregnant and postpartum mothers, teens, and adults. She noted that the second focus area under access to care was ensuring friendly immigrant services. She stated that the following were focus areas for adverse childhood experiences/trauma informed care: 1) Increasing community awareness; 2) Ensuring healthy teen relationships; and 3) Ensuring parent support systems. She noted that the focus areas for nutrition were: 1) Childhood nutrition; 2) Access to affordable healthy food and beverages; and 3) Community nutrition standards. She stated that the following were focus areas for violence: 1) Prevent child abuse; 2) Prevent domestic violence; and 3) Reduce gun violence. She noted that staff have been developing community outreach plans to include a community listening session, and outreach via social media, radio, health fairs, focus groups, and one-on-one conversations. She stated that feedback would continue to be gathered from key stakeholders, health community, and other city employees. She noted that staff would develop proposed strategies and budgets for discussion with Councilmembers before the Budget Goal Setting Sessions begin.

Mayor Pro Tem Hall expressed support for treating violence as a health issue.

Councilmember Sandoval asked if the Health Department would be responsible for implementing the strategies. Ms. Herriott replied that the Health Department would focus on the strategies for the next four years. She noted that funding for said strategies must be identified.

Councilmember Courage noted that three of the four priority health issues have mental health components.

Councilmember Treviño spoke of heat impacts to health. Dr. Bridger stated that health was a core pillar of everything that is done in the city.

Mayor Pro Tem Hall thanked staff for the presentation.
