LAND USE ANALYSIS:

The applicant requests this Plan Amendment change to Low Density Mixed Use land use classification in order to bring the subject property into compliance with applicable zoning regulations. The subject property consists of a carwash, two restaurants, a laundry-mat, a dog wash facility, a bar, a meeting facility, a party house, a reception hall, a parking lot and multi-unit residences. In order to accommodate this development the applicant requires the “IDZ” Infill Development Zone District which will accommodate all the proposed uses, which are suitable based on the character of adjacent developments.

ALTERNATIVES:

1. Recommend denial of the proposed amendment to the Five Points Neighborhood Plan, as presented above.
2. Make an alternate recommendation.
3. Continue to a future date.

FISCAL IMPACT:

None

RECOMMENDATION:

Staff recommends approval. The proposed amendment to Low Density Mixed Use is appropriate at this location and consistent with the established land use pattern.
