2.1 Redevelop and revitalize the neighborhood.

Comprehensive Land Use Categories

Neighborhood Commercial: Neighborhood Commercial includes low to moderate intensity, small scale retail, office or service uses serving the neighborhood area with low-impact convenience, retail, or service functions. Example of uses include convenience store, small insurance or doctor's office, bakery, small restaurant, bookstore, antique shop, copy service, veterinarian's office, or small, neighborhood sized grocery stores. Locations for Neighborhood Commercial include the intersections of residential streets, within established commercial areas, along collectors, and within walking distance of residential areas. Neighborhood Commercial can serve as an appropriate buffer between an arterial or collector and Low Density Residential uses. Parking is encouraged in the rear of the buildings, and should be appropriately buffered from adjacent residential uses through landscaping, screening and lighting controls. Pedestrian amenities are strongly encouraged.

Example Zoning Districts: NC, C-1, O-1

Comprehensive Land Use Categories

High Density Residential: High Density Residential development includes multi-family developments with more than four units on a single lot, such as apartment complexes, but can also include Low Density and Medium Density residential uses. High Density residential uses generally exceed 18 dwelling units per acre. This form of development should be located along collectors, arterials, or highways. It can function as a compatible transition between Medium and Low Density residential and higher intensity commercial uses. This classification can include certain non-residential uses such as schools, religious assemblies, parks and community centers that are centrally located for convenient neighborhood access. High Density Residential uses should be appropriately buffered from adjacent residential.

Example Zoning Districts: R-3, R-4, R-5, R-6, RM-4, RM-5, RM-6, MF-25, MF-33, MF-40, MF-50; and less intense residential zoning districts

LAND USE ANALYSIS:

The applicant requests this Plan Amendment and associated zoning change in order to rezone to "IDZ AHOD" Infill Development Zone Airport Hazard Overlay District with Single-Family Residential uses not to exceed thirty-three (33) units per acre. The subject property is currently not being used. It is surrounded by other commercial uses with residential uses on the property to the south. The requested High Density Residential classification supports the Government Hill Neighborhood Plan's objectives of establishing land use patterns that are responsive to the existing land uses and provides the necessary improvements to enable infill development and redevelopment.

ALTERNATIVES:

1. Recommend denial of the proposed amendment to the Government Hill Neighborhood Plan, as presented above.

2. Make an alternate recommendation.
3. Continue to a future date.

FISCAL IMPACT:

None.

RECOMMENDATION:

Staff recommends Approval. The proposed High Density Residential land use classification will provide consistency with the surrounding area and allow the applicant to seek the appropriate “IDZ” zoning district. The proposed amendment to High Density Residential land use classification meets the goals of the Government Hill Neighborhood Plan by promoting infill development and redevelopment of vacant or underutilized buildings.

PLANNING COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION: Approval (8-0).
