Criteria for Review: According to Section 35-421, zoning amendments shall be based on the approval criteria below.

1. Consistency:

The property is located within the Arena District/ Eastside Community Plan and is currently designated “Medium Density Residential”. The requested zoning is to allow for Historic Landmark Designation. The current base zoning is consistent with the plan.

2. Adverse Impacts on Neighboring Lands:

Staff finds no evidence of likely adverse impacts on the neighboring land in relation to the zoning change request as the zoning is consistent with the surrounding residential uses.

3. Suitability as Presently Zoned:

The current “RM-4” base zoning is appropriate for the surrounding area, as it is consistent with the surrounding land use development.

4. Health, Safety and Welfare:

Staff has found no indication of likely adverse effects on the public health, safety, or welfare.

5. Public Policy:

Staff finds that the request is not contrary to any stated public policy objective, as the plan calls for preservation of neighborhoods via historic landmark designation.

6. Size of Tract:

The subject property totals 0.1136 acres in size, which reasonably accommodate the uses permitted in the current “RM-4” Residential Mixed base zoning district.

7. Other Factors:

On April 4, 2018, the Historic and Design Review Commission approved a Finding of Historic Significance, identifying the property as historically significant based on criteria listed in Section 35-607 (b) of the Unified Development Code. The three criteria identified as being applicable to the subject property are specified below. The property owner submitted the application for supports Historic Landmark designation.

The Office of Historic Preservation is submitting the rezoning request on behalf of the property owner. The Office of Historic Preservation worked with the applicant on this rezoning request and supports Approval of the added “HL” Historic Landmark designation.

1503 Wyoming meets UDC criterion [35-607 (b)7],[35-607 (b)11], [35-607 (b)13], for a finding of historic significance in the process of seeking designation as a local historic landmark. In order to be eligible for landmark designation, a property must meet at least three of the criteria; 1503 Wyoming meets three.

They are as follows:

(7) Its unique location or singular physical characteristics that make it an established or familiar visual feature; the structure is a visual anchor on the corner of Wyoming and Piedmont.

(11) It is distinctive in character, interest or value; strongly exemplifies the cultural, economic, social, ethnic or historical heritage of San Antonio, Texas or the United States; the structure has a connection to longtime residents of this Eastside neighborhood including its construction by the Lohrberg family and residence by the Smith-Tones family.

(13) It bears an important and significant relationship to other distinctive structures, sites, or areas, either as an important collection of properties or architectural style or craftsmanship with few intrusions, or by contributing to the overall character of the area according to the plan based on architectural, historic or cultural motif; the structure has a relationship to the surrounding structures, built in the early twentieth century in Folk Victorian and Queen Anne styles.
