Overlay and Special District Information:

"AHOD"

All surrounding properties carry the "AHOD" Airport Hazard Overlay District, due to their proximity to an airport or approach path. The "AHOD" does not restrict permitted uses, but can require additional review of construction plans by both the Development Services Department and the Federal Aviation Administration.

"PUD"

Planned Unit Developments provide flexibility in development projects by allowing a combination of uses developed in accordance with an approved plan that protects adjacent properties; while preserving natural amenities and features of a site and providing for a minimum amount of open space. PUDs provide for a more efficient arrangement of land uses, buildings, circulation systems and infrastructure; encourage infill projects and development of sites made difficult for conventionally designed development because of shape, size, abutting development, poor accessibility or topography.

ALTERNATIVES:

Current: The current “PUD R-6” Planned Unit Development Residential Single-Family District (per a required PUD site plan) provides areas for medium- to high-density, single-family residential uses where adequate public facilities and services exist with capacity to serve development. This district is composed mainly of areas containing single-family dwellings and open area where similar residential development seems likely to occur. Residential single-family provides minimum lot size and density requirements in order to preserve neighborhood character.

This district is composed mainly of areas containing single-family dwellings and open area where similar residential development seems likely to occur. Residential single-family provides minimum lot size and density requirements in order to preserve neighborhood character.

RECOMMENDATION:

Staff Analysis and Recommendation: Staff recommends Approval.

Criteria for Review: According to Section 35-421, zoning amendments shall be based on the approval criteria below.

1. Consistency:

The subject property is located within the Medical Center Area Regional Center Plan and is currently designated as “Medium Density Residential.” The requested “R-6” is consistent with the future land use designation.

2. Adverse Impacts on Neighboring Lands:

Staff does not find evidence of likely adverse impacts on neighboring lands in relation to this zoning change request. The request removes the “PUD” Planned Unit Development Special District and a base “R-6” Residential Single-family remains.

3. Suitability as Presently Zoned:

The current “PUD R-6” and proposed “R-6” Residential Single-Family District are appropriate zoning for the property and surrounding area. The rezoning will allow development of a single-family home.

4. Health, Safety and Welfare:

Staff has not found indication of likely adverse effects on the public health, safety, or welfare.

5. Public Policy:

The proposed rezoning does not appear to conflict with the following goals, principles, and objectives of the Medical Center Area Regional Center Plan:

Goal 3.1- Promote urban design standards that create healthy and sustainable environments.

“The Medical Center Area will set the standard for a healthy community by offering variety of public gathering spaces, outdoor recreation options, housing and transportation choices...”

6. Size of Tract:

The subject property is 0.3162 acres, which could reasonably accommodate a dwelling unit.

7. Other Factors:

None.
