ISSUE:

Comprehensive Plan

Comprehensive Plan Component: Dignowity Hill Neighborhood Plan

Plan Adoption Date: December 3, 2009

Update History: None

Plan Goals: 10- Preserve the unique historic character of Dignowity Hill

8- Increase homeownership through infill development and housing rehabilitation

Comprehensive Land Use Categories

Land Use Category: Low Density Residential

Description of Land Use Category: Low Density Residential Development includes Single Family Residential Development on individual lots. The Dignowity Hill Neighborhood has a unique history showcased through the housing stock. The neighborhood encourages property owners to preserve the original housing stock whenever possible. It is recommended that all infill housing match existing housing in character, lot layout, and size. The neighborhood has varying densities included within the low density residential land use area. In recognition of these existing multifamily uses, attached or detached accessory dwelling units such as granny flats and garage apartments are allowed when located on the same lot as the principal residence. Only one accessory dwelling is permitted per lot and should reflect the appearance of the main structure. It is also recommended that structures built as multifamily housing continue its multifamily use, even when located within the low density residential areas. If a structure was built as a single-family use and was later converted into a multifamily structure, it is recommended that the structure return to a single-family use. This form of development should be located away from major arterials, and may include certain non-residential uses such as schools, places of worship, and parks that are centrally located for convenient neighborhood access. Pre-existing commercial buildings 3,000 square feet or less located at the corners of residential streets may be used for neighborhood commercial purposes.

Permitted Zoning Districts: R-3, R-4, R-5, R-6, RM-4, RM-5, RM-6

Land Use Category: Low Density Mixed Use

Description of Land Use Category: Low Density Mixed Use includes a mix of low intensity residential and commercial uses either on adjacent lots or integrated in one structure. The mix of uses within a block or building is to promote walkability and thus all mixed use developments should be designed for the pedestrian in mind. Compatibility between commercial and residential uses is recommended. Monument signs, shared parking located in back or to the rear of the structure, and limited curb cuts are encouraged.

Permitted Zoning Districts: R-3, R-4, R-5, R-6, RM-4, RM-5, RM-6, MF-18, MF-25, NC, C-1, C-2P, IDZ, TOD, MXD, FBZD, O-1

STAFF ANALYSIS AND RECOMMENDATION: Staff recommends Approval.

The applicant is proposing residential units, artist studios, and an art gallery. One of the structures currently presents a safety hazard and will be demolished, however, the remaining two structures will be adaptively reused and preserved. Allowing the requested “Low Density Mixed Use” land use classification and “IDZ” Infill Development Zone District would bring the properties zoning and land use into alignment. The “Low Density Mixed Use” category is intended to promote low intensity residential and commercial uses to promote walkability. This mixed use project is surrounded by residential uses and is within close proximity of the North New Braunfels Avenue Premium Corridor, and the Arts and Entertainment District. The change to “Low Density Mixed Use” is within vision of the Dignowity Hill Neighborhood Plan to Preserve the character of Dignowity Hill and promote homeownership through infill development and housing rehabilitation. Staff does have concerns with the proposed density, however, staff would recommend the proposed land use change with lesser density.

ALTERNATIVES:

1. Recommend denial of the proposed amendment to the Dignowity Hill Neighborhood Plan, as presented above.
2. Make an alternate recommendation.
3. Continue to a future date.

FISCAL IMPACT:

None.
