- B. An Ordinance establishing the San Antonio Housing Commission and approving the composition of the Commission to be appointed by the Mayor

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The Mayor's Task Force on Preserving Dynamic and Diverse Neighborhoods was established on July 11, 2014 with a specific charge to identify policies and programs that encourage investment in inner city neighborhoods but minimize or prevent displacement of people or adverse impacts related to history, culture, and quality of life of unique neighborhoods. The Task Force is comprised of community advocates, academics, non-profit housing partners, developers, and elected officials.

The Task Force, chaired by Mayor Taylor, has held a total of fifteen (15) meetings since October 2014, all of which have been open to the public. Additionally, four (4) community meetings were held between March 18 and April 1, 2015 at locations within the central city to gather input from community members. All materials were translated into Spanish and simultaneous English/Spanish translation was provided at three of four meetings. Citizens reviewed task force recommendations and provided input during these community meetings. Meeting materials were also posted online and comments collected online and via email.

Members of the Task Force developed short- and long-term recommendations that focus on providing tools and policies to achieve the following goals:

- Strengthen the fabric of our existing neighborhoods so current homeowners may remain in their homes amidst economic reinvestment and neighborhood revitalization
- Create vibrant, diverse, and inclusive neighborhoods where new residents and businesses thrive alongside current residents and established businesses;
- Provide for the protection of our most vulnerable residents from the adverse impacts of neighborhood change.

The City Council Quality of Life Committee was briefed on the Task Force's recommendations on February 17, 2015. The full City Council was briefed on the Task Force's recommendations at a B Session on April 29, 2015.

The proposed Commission would be a coordinating body charged with making recommendations to City Council on workforce/ affordable housing preservation and production as well as policies to minimize displacement and mitigate the effects of neighborhood change.

The thirteen (13) member Commission would be appointed by the Mayor and would be comprised of:

- One (1) Non-Profit Developer;
- One (1) Non-Profit Service Provider;
- One (1) Non-Profit Housing Provider;
- One (1) For-Profit Private Real Estate/Development Representative;
- One (1) Housing Law and/or Policy Expert;
- One (1) Financial Institution Representative;
- One (1) Academic/Historian;
- One (1) Architect or Urban Designer;
- One (1) San Antonio Housing Authority Representative; and
- Four (4) Neighborhood Groups/ Community Representatives

ALTERNATIVES:

- A. As an alternative, City Council could choose to not accept the Report or accept only specific portions of the Report. This would likely delay implementation of the comprehensive strategies recommended by the Task Force to preserve dynamic and diverse neighborhoods.
- B. As an alternative, City Council could choose to not establish the San Antonio Housing Commission. The Task Force has completed its charge. If the Housing Commission is not established, there will not be a coordinating body charged with making recommendations to City Council on workforce/ affordable housing preservation and production as well as policies to minimize displacement and mitigate the effects of neighborhood change.

FISCAL IMPACT:

- A. There is no anticipated fiscal impact with the acceptance of the Report.
- B. The Commission would utilize staff in the Department of Planning and Community Development and other departments as needed.

RECOMMENDATION:

- A. Staff recommends approval of a Resolution accepting the Mayor's Task Force on Preserving Dynamic and Diverse Neighborhoods Report.

- B. Staff recommends approval of an Ordinance establishing the San Antonio Housing Commission and approving the composition of the Commission to be appointed by the Mayor.
